

MAN WITH JIMMY PICKS COP FOR LOOKOUT ON "LITTLE JOB"

Hopes Joke Won't Get Back to Boys in Sing Sing, He Says, When Arrested.

Detective John Vesey of the Special Service Squad, roughly dressed for a rainy night, was at the Pennsylvania Station early to-day and noticed a well dressed youth seemed to be watching him.

Finally the youth borrowed a cigarette and looked at Vesey, who detected he was a "nut." The stranger, on the other hand, seemed to think the detective was a congenial soul, and after an hour or two approached him again.

"Are you working?" he asked. The detective said he was.

"How are things coming?" he inquired of Vesey, who replied, "Oh, just fair."

"Well," confided the stranger, "you won't get anything around here. I have been on the job and the place is dead, but we might pull off something outside. Come with me and we'll make some real money. I always work alone, but you look all right and I'll fix it so you won't be taking any chances. All you have to do is to give me a yell if a cop comes along and then beat it."

"What have you got for a job?" asked Vesey.

The stranger pulled out an 18-inch "Jimmy."

By this time they were outside the station and then Vesey suggested he "knew a place," and escorted the stranger to the West 36th Street Police Station. When the man saw the green lights he wanted to bolt but the detective's gun dissuaded him. Inside the station the humor of it overcame his anger and he laughed.

"Well," he said, "if they ever hear of this in Sing Sing my goose will be cooked. Can you beat it? Trying to get a cop for a lookout?"

He said he was George E. Mason, thirty-eight, "no home except when in jail." The latter statement may be true, but his pretensions to high standing in Sing Sing are not. He has never been in that prison. He was released from Blackwell's island two weeks ago after serving six months for trying to steal a handbag in the Pennsylvania Station.

WOULD LET POLICE LICENSE TAXI MEN

Bill Introduced at Albany Would Have Criminal Record Check on Applicants.

ALBANY, Jan. 5.—Checking crime by giving the New York City Police Department the right to license taxicab drivers is the purpose of a bill introduced in the Assembly to-day by Joseph Steinberg (Rep., Manhattan). The measure, advocated by Chief Magistrate McArdoo and Police Commissioner Enright, was scrapped last year.

A bill advocated by the Women's League for the protection of Riverside Drive makes it illegal to maintain dumps or coal pockets along the river front in the park area.

COP FIRES AT FOUR IN CHASE; ONE STOPS

He Is Accused of Burglary of Hester Street Store.

Patrolman Michael Gibbons of the Clinton Street Station saw four men in front of Samuel Greenberg's clothing store, No. 108 Hester Street, at 5 o'clock this morning, and because they ran he chased them, firing four shots before he induced one of them to stop. The other three got away.

The captured one said he was Antonio Rossi, twenty-four, of No. 213 Mott Street. He was locked up on a charge of burglary, for it was found that the clothing store had been jimmied and most of the clothes packed up ready for moving.

GIRL AIDS IN CAPTURE OF ALLEGED BURGLARS

Saw Two Leave Apartment House by Way of Roof.

Miss Mary Ware, No. 2468 Seventh Avenue, says she saw two men leave that apartment house yesterday afternoon by way of the roof. They had a suitcase. James Jathara, who lives there, told the police that somebody had entered his apartment by jimmied the dumb waiter door and stolen a lot of his clothes. He and Miss Ware walked through the neighborhood last evening, always within halting distance of Detectives Shields and McGrath.

In a restaurant at 111st Street and Seventh Avenue Miss Ware pointed out two men who were arrested on burglary charges. They gave the names of Harry Solinsky, No. 832 Brook Avenue, and Thomas Fitzpatrick, No. 164 West 147th Street. They were taken to Washington Heights Court.

Combing Won't Rid Hair of Dandruff

The only sure way to get rid of dandruff is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this, get about four ounces of ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

Do this to-night and by morning most if not all of your dandruff will be gone and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have.

You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop at once, and your hair will be fluffy, lustrous, glossy, silky and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better. You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. It is inexpensive and never fails to do the work.—Adv.

TWO BOYS ARRESTED AS ALLEGED BURGLARS

Policeman Surprises Pair Planning to Enter Grocery.

Policeman Devine of the East 125th Street Station early this morning saw two boys standing in front of the grocery of Philip Justino at No. 314 East 118th Street. The older one was apparently directing the younger, to enter through a broken panel. Devine arrested Jasper Gernard, eighteen, of No. 311 Pleasant Avenue, and Frank Suriano, fifteen, of No. 510 East 117th Street.

According to the police, young Suriano recently was paroled from the Catholic Protective and admitted he has worked with Gernard on several small burglaries in their neighborhood.

STILLMAN PARTY NOW AT THREE RIVERS

Mrs. Stillman There From Montreal—Beauvais Also Arrives.

THREE RIVERS, Que., Jan. 5.—Mrs. Anne U. Stillman, defendant, and Fred Beauvais, correspondent, in the Stillman divorce suit were here to-day awaiting the return of couriers who have gone by sleigh to Grand Anse, Latouche and Riviere au Hat to corral witnesses for the on-trial hearings next week.

The captured one said he was Antonio Rossi, twenty-four, of No. 213 Mott Street. He was locked up on a charge of burglary, for it was found that the clothing store had been jimmied and most of the clothes packed up ready for moving.

TRANSIT BOARD SUES FOR SALARIES

Board of Estimate Served in Order to Force Payment of $70,761.80.

Members of the Board of Estimate were served to-day with an order to show cause why the Appellate Division of the Supreme Court should not issue an order requiring the board to pay over to the Transit Commission the sum of $70,761.80 required for salaries of 990 employees of the commission for the month of December.

In the moving papers it is set forth that the board of Estimate, under a court order, with the understanding that the legal rights of the city in its contention that the Transit Commission is an illegal body were preserved, appropriated $900,000 for the expenses of the commission in July and $141,000 in November. Additional employees were transferred to the commission from the Public Service Commission, however, which swelled the payroll.

The Transit Commission employees who are dependent on the city have not received their December pay. The Board of Estimate on Jan. 4 voted to withhold the payroll appropriation until the status of the Transit Commission is settled by the Court of Appeals, which has the matter under consideration.

WOUNDED SERVICE MEN RESENT ECONOMY PLAN

Urge Harding Not to Sign Bill for Hospital Changes.

Indignation meetings are to-day being held in the four Public Health Service Hospitals—Hudson Street Hospital, Fox Hills, Polyclinic and the Marine Hospital—by the wounded ex-service men and doctors because of the proposed "economy measure," which will replace all reserve medical officers with civilian physicians. This order, if signed by President Harding, will affect seventy-eight hospitals, treating more than 29,000 patients.

Scores of telegrams have been sent by women's clubs, the American Legion posts and the National Tuberculosis Association to President Harding, Treasurer Mellon and Senator Calder protesting against the passage of this bill. The reserve medical officers now caring for the ex-service men range in pay from $25 a month to $5,000 a year.

Two wounded marines from Polyclinic Hospital will start for Washington to-night to carry a message of protest to President Harding.
